THE SCOTTISH STAINED GLASS SYMPOSIUM

Maria Shaw memorial window, Bridge of Allan Church, by Linda Cannon

Aims include:

- ❖ the exchange of ideas and information
- ❖ the conservation in situ of existing stained glass in Scotland
- ❖ the creation of one or more Repositories with educational and other facilities
- ❖ the recording of inventories of stained glass throughout Scotland and by Scottish artists anywhere

SCOTTISH STAINED GLASS SYMPOSIUM (SSGS)

- ❖ A committee open to all, begun June 2003
- ❖ meets three times a year in Edinburgh.
- ❖ cooperates with a wide range of individual people, and public and charitable bodies
- ❖ aims to 'rescue' threatened glass and to stimulate Scotland's interest in it

Chaired by Professor John Hume OBE, convener of the Church Art and Architecture Committee [CARTA] of the Church of Scotland

CONSERVATION and CHANGE

SSGS may advise on:

- ❖ care and maintenance of glass
- ❖ conservation of glass
- ❖ significance of stained glass
- ❖ planning applications (glass)

REPOSITORY GROUP

- ❖ hopes to establish one or more repository to house significant stained glass that would otherwise be lost
- ❖ could provide educational and other facilities in the repository

Chaired by Mark Bambrough (Chair of the Institute of Conservation in Scotland, [ICON])

RECORDING and INVENTORIES

Targets include:

- ❖ deciphering, checking, and recording existing hand-written inventories
- ❖ gathering and creating comprehensive indices of stained glass in Scotland and of stained glass artists who are Scottish by birth or domicile
- ❖ creating an Inventory of Inventories

Chaired by Iain Galbraith, stained glass inventorist and historian

SCOTTISH CHURCH HERITAGE

RESEARCH [SCHR] (Chaired by Edwina Proudfoot) and SSGS hope to work in partnership.

Information provided by SSGS will be incorporated into SCHR's Gazetteer of Places of Worship in Scotland, (which already holds limited details on some 10,500 places).

Preliminary data can be found at www.scottishchurchesgazetteer.co.uk

THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF DECORATIVE AND FINE ARTS SOCIETIES OF SCOTLAND [NADFAS] (Chaired by Sheila Townsend-Rose) plans to help SSGS to record stained glass in deteriorating or changing buildings.
