Locum Minister

£12,880 pro rata, per annum

Two days/week pastoral cover

Sunday morning service

Fife: Eden Tay Parish Church came into being on 1st October 2024.

Since 2017, our five legacy parishes were part of what was known as Eden Tay Cluster. Through this we have come to know each other quite well as we attended workshops, shared worship, and enjoyed quizzes, walking days etc. This has helped tremendously as we have worked together to create Fife: Eden Tay Parish Church. We are a resourceful and resilient church community with a ready welcome for all.

Although we are a union of five previous parishes, there is no full time Minister in post and applicants for this Locum Minister post should be able to lead services celebrating Communion, Baptism etc. Discussions at a meeting of Fife: Eden Tay Kirk Session have produced a pared down schedule of services which will begin in the New Year.

With our Interim Moderator, Ewan Oliver, this vacancy situation is right at the top of our KS agenda as we begin the process required to advertise and call a full time MWS. The Locum post will, therefore, last at least six months, probably longer, until the induction of our new minister.

We very much look forward to welcoming our new Locum Minister and to sharing the task. There are several members who already regularly lead services, giving us a varied selection of worship experiences.

If you feel you would like to join us here in the very lovely North East of Fife, between the Eden and the Tay, please get in touch.

Informal conversations welcome –
