HEAR, O ISRAEL:

THE LORD IS OUR GOD,

THE LORD ALONE. YOU SHALL LOVE THE LORD

YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART,

AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL,

AND WITH ALL YOUR MIGHT.

KEEP THESE WORDS THAT I AM COMMANDING

YOU TODAY IN YOUR HEART.

RECITE THEM TO YOUR CHILDREN AND TALK ABOUT

THEM WHEN YOU ARE AT HOME

AND WHEN YOU ARE AWAY, WHEN YOU LIE DOWN

AND WHEN YOU RISE. BIND THEM AS A SIGN ON

YOUR HAND, FIX THEM AS AN EMBLEM ON

YOUR FOREHEAD, AND WRITE THEM ON

THE DOORPOSTS OF YOUR HOUSE

AND ON YOUR GATES.

Welcome Note

Welcome to the Community of Faith Conference.

We are delighted to have you join us today to explore and think creatively about our ministry with children and young people.

Many churches today have few or no children and young people attending on a Sunday morning and can often feel a bit discouraged. This conference is designed specifically to resource people in those situations by helping you think about how to connect with children, young people and families in new or different ways. Through our keynote and workshops we will explore opportunities and ways of reaching and discipling young people in our churches and local communities.

This handbook has the programme and information that you need for the conference as well as further information from the Mission and Discipleship Council. If you have come as part of a group, we recommend that you try to attend different workshops to explore the different topics. Do also make the most of opportunities to talk with and learn from one another throughout the day.

We hope and pray that this conference builds you up and encourages you as you serve in the life of your church and local community.

Title	Exploring the Bible (going beyond Noah's Ark) (x1)	Lounge
Speaker	Gavin Thomson has worked for SU Scotland and associated trusts for the last 14 years, now working in West Lothian and Falkirk. He is married to Joanna and they have three children between the ages of 8 and 2.
Blurb	Do we want to tell children Bible stories – or do we want to explore what the Bible has to say alongside children? This seminar will think about ways to get into the Bible with children, to be challenged and changed, not just a Sunday school story.

Title	The first five steps: how to start connecting with your community (x2)	Red Room
Speaker	Charlie Morris is an Aussie who now calls Scotland home, who loves his coffee, who has almost 30 years of paid and voluntary youth work experience, and spends the rest of his time leading Urban Saints in Scotland, an organisation committed to helping churches deliver great youth and children's work.
Blurb	You have a passion and desire to see more children and young people in your church, but still are not sure where to start or what to do first. In this workshop we will creatively explore the first five steps you should take, why the order is important, and the significant role coffee will play in each step!

Title	Answering Young People's Questions (x1)	Small Hall
Speaker	Cara Wightman is the senior development worker for Cathcart Youth Ministry Partnership (CYMP). CYMP is a charity set up in 2007 by three local churches to provide children and youth work. Cara is married to Mark and they have a daughter .
Blurb	What do you do when your children or young people ask hard questions about God and faith? Panic? Fake a sneezing fit? Refer them to the minister? Believe it or not, the faith questions that bother people (of all ages) have all been asked many times, and sensible answers have been formulated by people much wiser than us! I will try to point you to these sources, in the Bible and elsewhere, but more importantly, we will explore together the importance of our own walk with God in equipping us with the wisdom and confidence to face the hardest and most personal questions of all.

Title	Engaging with Schools (x2)	Sanctuary
Speaker	Steve Younger is the Baptist Minister at High Blantyre where he is now in his 30th year of ministry. He has been involved in School Chaplaincy for longer than that (Primary, Secondary, ASN, and ASD). He is currently studying for a PhD in Religious Observance and Spiritual Development.
Blurb	Schools "the most significant single point of contact between the Church and the young". (J Caperon A Vital Ministry: Chaplaincy in Schools). This seminar explores how Church and School can work in partnership to fulfil the capacities of Scotland's 'Curriculum for Excellence' and provide meaningful assemblies and religious observance.

Title	Strategy: programmes and resources to fit? (x1)	Welcome Area
Speaker	Paula Morton works as part of the Urban Saints Scotland team, working with churches helping leaders to deliver great youth & children’s work. Not only can Paula be found running messy challenges at holiday clubs & camps, she also runs a flower business with her Mum.
Blurb	A session for those seeking appropriate resources and ideas and help adapting them for effective use within your context and strategy. What resources are available for youth and children’s work and how do I choose the right ones for my context? How do I adapt these resources to fit my group? This will be a practical, participatory session that aims to address these questions and will use as its base the “Energize” material from Urban Saints.

Title	Not just a Holiday Club (x2)	Small Hall
Speaker	Cara Wightman —see above
Blurb	A Holiday Club is a great mission opportunity and offers an exciting time for team members of all ages and stages to grow in faith, fellowship and service! But what about the other 51 weeks (98%) of the year? Surely there is more to do than simply recover from the last one and get ready for next year? We don’t have all the answers but in this workshop we’ll explore together some suggestions for keeping the momentum going in your community all year round, and making sure your helper team keeps growing.

Title	Messy Church- engaging families in a new way of being church (x2)	Main Hall
Speaker	Shuna Dicks has been Parish Minister at Aberlour Parish Church for almost 7 years. . Messy Church has been part of the life of the parish for over 5 years, becoming a third congregation and regularly sees upwards of 30 people at monthly gatherings – most of whom are not ‘Sunday’ worshippers.
Blurb	We will look at how a Messy Church session runs, how we attract people to come along etc. This will be a very hands on session and there may be some mess! A variety of resources will be available for participants to look at as well as time for some questions.

Title	Building Community with Young People (x2)	Welcome Area
Speaker	Paula Morton —see above
Blurb	How many ‘likes’ did my post get on Facebook? Did anyone retweet me? Today relationships are built on more fleeting acquaintances – a ‘like’ on FB or an instant friend request. How can we build Community where the church is the family of God, caring for the emotional, physical and spiritual needs of one another. As the family of God how do we spiritually nurture and engage with our young people? Does this responsibility extend beyond the church walls? We will explore how we might nurture and disciple our young people within our church family and extend this to welcome those in our parish into the church family.

Title	How to fail at youth ministry in ten easy steps (x1)	Red Room
Speaker	Charlie Morris —see above
Blurb	Will draw on regular mistakes that I, and others, have made over many years of youth work! This will challenge our thinking of and help avoid making the same mistakes.

Title	Spiritual Styles (x1)	Sanctuary
Speaker	Suzi Farrant has worked for the Mission & Discipleship Council since April 2012. Now the Young People and Young Adult's Development Worker she has over 20 years' experience of ministry with children and young people
Blurb	In what ways do you connect with God? For some people, the words of a hymn or prayer might draw them near, while others might see God in the beauty of nature. Some people get close to God by raising funds for charity, while others might find God in dance or drama. In this seminar, we explore four distinct styles in which people encounter God, how these develop as we grow and how our own preferences impact on what we prepare for others.

The COSY guide to ethical living has been written by young adults connected to the National Youth Assembly to help others (primarily 14-30 year olds) understand the impact of decisions on current issues and everyday dilemmas. The aim of the guide is to rid any misconceptions and help readers come to ethically sound decisions. It is based around the story of Melissa, a fictional protagonist.

I AM CALLED

Delegates at the Church of Scotland National Youth Assembly 2013 were asked to reflect on who they are called to be, how the Church has enabled them to follow that call and what barriers exist in the Church which restrict them following their call. This document is a collation of their responses. It hopefully provides some useful points that will enable the Church to consider how it can enable its people, young and old, to follow God's call in their lives.

It can be viewed online: http://issuu.com/cofsyouth/docs/cosy\_voices

It is also available for free download from the Resourcing Mission website.

INTERNATIONAL TRIPS

Each year COSY offers several young adults the opportunity to travel overseas and represent the Church of Scotland by taking part in events run by some of our partner churches. More information about the trips available and reports from previous participants can be found <https://www.resourcingmission.org.uk/learn/young-adults/international/application-form>.

The COSY Collective fund is a pot of money set aside for the use of young people in projects that enable them to creatively reach out to their communities. Small grants (normally up to £200) will be given to projects in local communities (not overseas) run by young people. Grants could be used for starting a new youth group, buying equipment, running a sports day event, starting a youth choir, buying resources for a bible study group, hiring transport to get to an event—the list is endless.

Any young person, involved in the Church of Scotland, aged 25 or younger can apply. Applications from individuals or groups will be accepted.

For more information and an application form please email Suzi Farrant sfarrant@churchofscotland.org.uk

ARE CHILDREN OF GOD.

FOR YOU DID NOT RECEIVE A
SPIRIT OF SLAVERY TO FALL BACK INTO FEAR,
BUT YOU HAVE RECEIVED A SPIRIT OF ADOPTION.

WHEN WE CRY, “ABBA! FATHER!”

IT IS THAT VERY SPIRIT BEARING WITNESS

WITH OUR SPIRIT THAT WE ARE

CHILDREN OF GOD, AND IF CHILDREN,

THEN HEIRS, HEIRS OF GOD AND

JOINT HEIRS WITH CHRIST—

IF, IN FACT, WE SUFFER WITH HIM

SO THAT WE MAY ALSO BE GLORIFIED WITH HIM.
