

Word of Life

Words by Robin Hill. Music by Robin Hill and Richard Michael.

Word of life, true Word of justice singing down the years, lift your voice so all on earth might hear you through their fears.
Your sweet song can stir the nations from their selfish course, leading them from exploitation, hate and remorse.

Glow of life, true glow of conscience gleaming in the night, settle every eye upon your pure and steady light.
Cast your warming beams of brightness all the world around, bringing hope to guide the people where hurt is found.

God of life, true God of wisdom, gentle God of all,
may the people make a stand in answer to your call.
Through life's troubles bring your healing all our many days, by your Word who keeps revealing heaven's gracious rays, now and always.

Dedicated with love to the memory of the Rev Professor Duncan Forrester