The Presbytery of Forth Valley and Clydesdale

PRESBYTERY CLERK JOB DESCRIPTION

Title:	Presbytery Clerk
Responsible to:	Convener of the Business Committee
Managing:	The staff team of Administration Officer; Chaplains; Cleaner; Depute Clerk; Education, Training and Development Officer and Mission Officer
Date:	July 2024

Context:

The Presbytery of Forth Valley and Clydesdale offers an exciting opportunity for an individual who is visionary, approachable and passionate about mission and reform in the Church of Scotland, and willing to help shape the future of the Presbytery of Forth Valley and Clydesdale to best serve God and our varied communities.

The Presbytery was established on 1 January 2022 when the former Presbyteries of Hamilton and Lanark came together as part of the reform programme established by the General Assembly, and further joined by Falkirk Presbytery on 1 June 2022. With the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, Presbytery seeks to chart a new path to ensure that Presbytery offers care, support and strategic leadership to those with whom we work. The Presbytery Clerk is a key support in this aim. Our Presbytery Plan is now in place and we are working towards its implementation.

The successful candidate for Presbytery Clerk will be required to bring experience of the Church of Scotland, inspirational leadership and a flexibility in working practices to respond to the changing needs of our Presbytery as we meet the challenges of our day.

Our Committee structures have only recently changed, so this is an exciting opportunity to help develop and shape Presbytery for the future.

Main Purpose of the Post:

The objective of the Presbytery of Forth Valley and Clydesdale is 'supporting congregations to share the Good News of Jesus Christ through working with each other, working for each other and being with each other'.
